

Prior to his release from the Residential Re-Entry Center (RRC), Mr. Pruitt was employed as a laborer with Patriot Staffing in Greensboro, NC. Upon release from the RRC, he quit his job with Patriot Staffing due to transportation difficulties. Mr. Pruitt remained unemployed until November 27, 2007, when he obtained a position as a laborer with Diversco, located in Eden, NC. Mr. Pruitt worked in this capacity until January 14, 2008, when he was involuntarily terminated for not showing up for work. On January 16, 2008, the probation officer met with Mr. Pruitt at his home and inquired about his employment. Mr. Pruitt initially reported that work was going well, but after further questioning, admitted that he had quit going into work.

Since his release to supervision, Mr. Pruitt has tested positive for, and admitted the use of marijuana on three occasions (September 30, 2007, November 22, 2007 and December 31, 2007). Mr. Pruitt was instructed to contact TASC for his treatment needs in Rockingham County. Mr. Pruitt did not complete a course of treatment at TASC, and a treatment referral will be made upon entry into the RRC.

Mr. Pruitt has always been polite and cooperative towards the probation officer, and this officer believes that 180 days of RRC placement would work as both a sanction for Mr. Pruitt's violation conduct as well as a stabilizing influence for him.

Respectfully submitted,

James W. Long
U.S. Probation Officer
